

The RATES for Hackney-Coaches and Chairs.

By the Commissioners authorized and appointed for licensing and regulating Hackney-Coaches and Chairs.

AN Act of Parliament passed the last Session, Entituled, An Act for Licensing and Regulating Hackney-Coaches and Chairs, &c. provides, That no Hackney-Coachman shall presume to take for his Hire, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, or within Ten Miles thereof, above the Rates of Ten Shillings for a Day, reckoning Twelve Hours to the Day, and by the Hour not above Eighteen Pence for the first Hour, and Twelve Pence for every Hour after; and that no Gentleman, or other Person, shall pay from any of the Inns of Court, or thereabouts, to any Part of St. James's, or City of Westminster, (except beyond Tuttle-street) above Twelve Pence; and the same Prices from the same Places to the Inns of Court, or Places thereabouts; and from any of the said Inns of Court, or thereabouts, to the Royal-Exchange Twelve Pence; and if to the Tower of London, or Bishopsgate-street, or Aldgate, or thereabouts, One Shilling and Six Pence, and so from the said Places to the said Inns of Court, as aforesaid; and the like Rates from and to any Places at the like Distance with the Places before-mentioned.

AND WHEREAS by the said Act it is also provided, That no Gentleman, or other Person, shall be obliged to pay above Twelve Pence for the Use of an Hackney-Coach for any Distance (not particularly set down in the said Act) so as the same do not exceed One Mile and Four Furlongs; and that no Gentleman, or other Person, shall be obliged to pay above One Shilling and Six Pence for the Use of an Hackney-Coach, for any Distance (not particularly set down in the said Act) being above One Mile and Four Furlongs, and not exceeding Two Miles;

The said Commissioners (pursuant to the Directions of the said Act) have caused to be admeasured, and do hereby publish, the several Distances between the most noted Places within the Limits of the Weekly Bills (not particularly set down in the said Act) according to which the said Rates of Twelve Pence, and One Shilling and Six Pence, respectively, ought to be paid and regulated, as aforesaid; viz.
